Sunday School Opening (10:00)

Prelude

O Morning Star

Ringing of the Bells

Welcome

We welcome you to worship at Trinity Lutheran Church, a historic parish serving today's people. We pray that your worship experience will bring you closer to God's love in Jesus Christ and equip you for living out your faith life in Him. Visitors and regular attendees are reminded that there is a nursery on Sunday from 10:00-11:30a.m. for infants -3 years of age. The nursery is staffed by adults and located in the parish house, attached to the sanctuary. Sunday school occurs during the service in the parish house for children 3-10 years old. Sunday school children will then join back in the service before celebrating the Lord's Supper. Please ask an usher for directions to the nursery and Sunday school. Hearing assistance is also provided for those who need it. See an usher or the sound board operator for help. Prayer Request Forms are attached to bulletin. If you would like a prayer spoken in the worship service or placed on our prayer chain, fill out a yellow card and prepare to hand it to the aisle during the sermon hymn.

Invocation

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Pastor: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

People: But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

Pastor: Let us then confess our sins to God our Father.

People: Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

Pastor: Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Old Testament Reading

2 Kings 5:1-14

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master and in high favor, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. Now the Syrians on one of their raids had carried off a little girl from the land of Israel, and she worked in the service of Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "Would that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." So Naaman went in and told his lord, "Thus and so spoke the girl from the land of Israel." And the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothes. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you Naaman my servant, that you may cure him of his leprosy." And when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Only consider, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me." But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house. And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean." But Naaman was angry and went away, saying, "Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call upon the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage. But his servants came near and said to him, "My father, it is a great word the prophet has spoken to you; will you not do it? Has he actually said to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?" So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Leader: I will extol you, O LORD, for you have drawn me up

People: and have not let my foes rejoice over me.

Leader: O LORD my God, I cried to you for help,

People: and you have healed me.

Leader: O LORD, you have brought up my soul from Sheol;

People: you restored me to life from among those who go down to the pit.

Leader: Sing praises to the LORD, O you his saints,

People: and give thanks to his holy name.

Leader: For his anger is but for a moment, and his favor is for a lifetime.

People: Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

Leader: As for me, I said in my prosperity,

People: "I shall never be moved."

Leader: By your favor, O LORD, you made my mountain stand strong;

People: you hid your face; I was dismayed.

Leader: To you, O LORD, I cry,

People: and to the Lord I plead for mercy:

Leader: "What profit is there in my death, if I go down to the pit?

People: Will the dust praise you? Will it tell of your faithfulness?

Leader: Hear, O LORD, and be merciful to me!

People: O LORD, be my helper!"

Leader: You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;

People: you have loosed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness,

Leader: that my glory may sing your praise and not be silent.

People: O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Epistle

1 Corinthians 10:31—11:1

So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse

Alleluia.

Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

Alleluia, alleluia.

Leader: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the first chapter.

People: Glory to You, O Lord.

And a leper came to [Jesus], imploring him, and kneeling said to him, "If you will, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand and touched him and said to him, "I will; be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. And Jesus sternly charged him and sent him away at once, and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a proof to them." But he went out and began to talk freely about it, and to spread the news, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter a town, but was out in desolate places, and people were coming to him from every quarter.

Leader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. Prayers of the Church

Pastor: God's will is able and His will is done on earth as it is in heaven. Let us pray for ourselves and the Church throughout the world, that it may be done among us also, and for all people, that they may know the will of the One who desires all to be saved.

Pastor: For the Church, that our Lord would keep her in the narrow way and that by trusting in faith alone, grace alone, and scripture alone, her members would cling solely to Christ who is able to grant health, healing, and salvation; let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Pastor: For our nation that God would bless our president, and grant to all magistrates who govern distant lands, wisdom, courage, and humility in keeping with His Word of grace. For local and international commerce so that people everywhere may prosper and grow, abundantly blessed with daily bread and all the necessities to sustain life. For all those who face terrorism, persecution, and strife, that the Gospel may have free course and be spread among all peoples in every land; let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Pastor: For those who are sick ... that the Great Physician would bring healing of body, mind, and soul, increasing the joy and comfort of those who are burdened with physical and emotional turmoil; let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Pastor: For our parish, that we would trust in the will of God revealed to us in His Word of Law and Gospel, and that we may be ever mindful of the condemnation of our sin and declaration of forgiveness. That we, by faith, may comprehend the vastness of God's blessings as we come to know His comfort, joy, health, and strength; especially...let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Pastor: Into Your hands we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in Your mercy and submitting to Your will; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People: Amen.

Preface

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Pastor: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

Pastor: It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord; for what had been hidden from before the foundation of the world You have made known to the nations in Your Son. In Him, being found in the substance of our mortal nature, You have manifested the fullness of Your glory. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and singing:

Sanctus

comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Pastor: Blessed are You, Lord of heaven and earth, for You have had mercy on those whom You created and sent Your only-begotten Son into our flesh to bear our sin and be our Savior. With repentant joy we receive the salvation accomplished for us by the all-availing sacrifice of His body and His blood on the cross.

Gathered in the name and the remembrance of Jesus, we beg You, O Lord, to forgive, renew, and strengthen us with Your Word and Spirit. Grant us faithfully to eat His body and drink His blood as He bids us do in His own testament. Gather us together, we pray, from the ends of the earth to celebrate with all the faithful the marriage feast of the Lamb in His kingdom, which has no end. Graciously receive our prayers; deliver and preserve us. To You alone, O Father, be all glory, honor, and worship, with the Son and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

The Words of Our Lord

Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Sharing of the Peace

Distribution Hymn (10:15)

As With Gladness Men of Old

1 As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold;
2 As with joy-ful steps they sped, Sav-ior, to Thy low-ly bed,
3 As they of-fered gifts most rare At Thy cra-dle, rude and bare,
4 Ho-ly Je-sus, ev-'ry day Keep us in the nar-row way;
5 In the heav'n-ly coun-try bright Need they no cre-at-ed light;

As with joy they hailed its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright;
There to bend the knee be-fore Thee, whom heav'n and earth a-dore;
So may we with ho-ly joy, Pure and free from sin's al-loy,
And when earth-ly things are past, Bring our ran-somed souls at last
Thou its light, its joy, its crown, Thou its sun which goes not down;

So, most gra-cious Lord, may we Ev-er-more be led by Thee.
So may we with will-ing feet Ev-er seek Thy mer-cy seat.
All our cost-liest trea-sures bring, Christ, to Thee, our heav'n-ly King.
Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds Thy glo-ry hide.
There for-ev-er may we sing Al-le-lu-ias to our King.

Post-Communion Collect

Pastor: It is a great word the prophet has spoken to you, will you not do it?

People: Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Pastor: Let us pray. Almighty God, heavenly Father, You have brought us perfect healing through the Sacrament of Your Son's body and blood. Keep Your eye upon us, that we who are now imperishable may, by Your Spirit's grace and power, serve You with our whole heart and love our neighbors as ourselves; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

Trinity's Historic Preservation Fund

Ever wonder what the line on your church envelope “Historic Preservation Fund” means? The Historic Preservation Fund has two purposes:

1. To maintain and enhance Trinity's historic buildings and
2. To assist Trinity in the event the congregation has difficulty in meeting its financial obligations.

Some of the projects the Historic Preservation Fund has assisted during the last few years are: supplementing the operating budget of Trinity, helping to maintain the church building, assisting elevator installation and repairs, assisting in the cost of installing a new sound system, assisting art glass repairs and installation, and other projects.

The Historic Preservation Fund has received gifts through Trinity's church envelopes, memorials, bequests, wedding fees, and monetary gifts.

The next time you fill in an amount on your church envelope next to “Historic Preservation Fund”, know that you are helping the ministries of Historic Trinity by providing reserve funds and you are assisting the ongoing task of maintaining our historic church properties in which we worship our God and serve His people.

LUTHERAN CHURCH
Missouri Synod
MISSOURI DISTRICT

February 8, 2012

Dear Members of Trinity Lutheran Church,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (LCMS) was formed by Lutheran congregations that determined that they were unable to conduct the work of the Christian church individually, especially in the areas of mission work and training of church workers (Pastors). Synod literally means, "walking together."

Today, the original handful of congregations that formed the Synod has grown to include more than 6,100 congregations. Together, we the member congregations of the LCMS have two seminaries, ten colleges and universities, and conduct mission work throughout the world. Indeed, together we are able to conduct the work of the Christian church with greater impact than any one congregation can do alone.

Your congregation is a vital part of the LCMS and the Missouri District. It is primarily through your prayer and financial support that the District and Synod are able to carry out mission work (through your district, 35 missions are currently receiving financial assistance), provide students that are preparing for full-time church work with financial grants, assist congregations with their calling of pastors, teachers, DCE's and other full-time church workers, and assist congregations with many other requested services.

Thank you for your and your congregation's prayers and financial support this past year. I know that the current economic times are challenging. Your continued faithful support of the District and through the District of the Synod is deeply appreciated. Thank you!

I promise to continue to keep your congregation, pastor, staff and leaders in my personal prayers. God bless your ministry throughout the year.

In the Service of Jesus Christ,

Rev. Dr. Ray G. Mirly
