

Journaling:

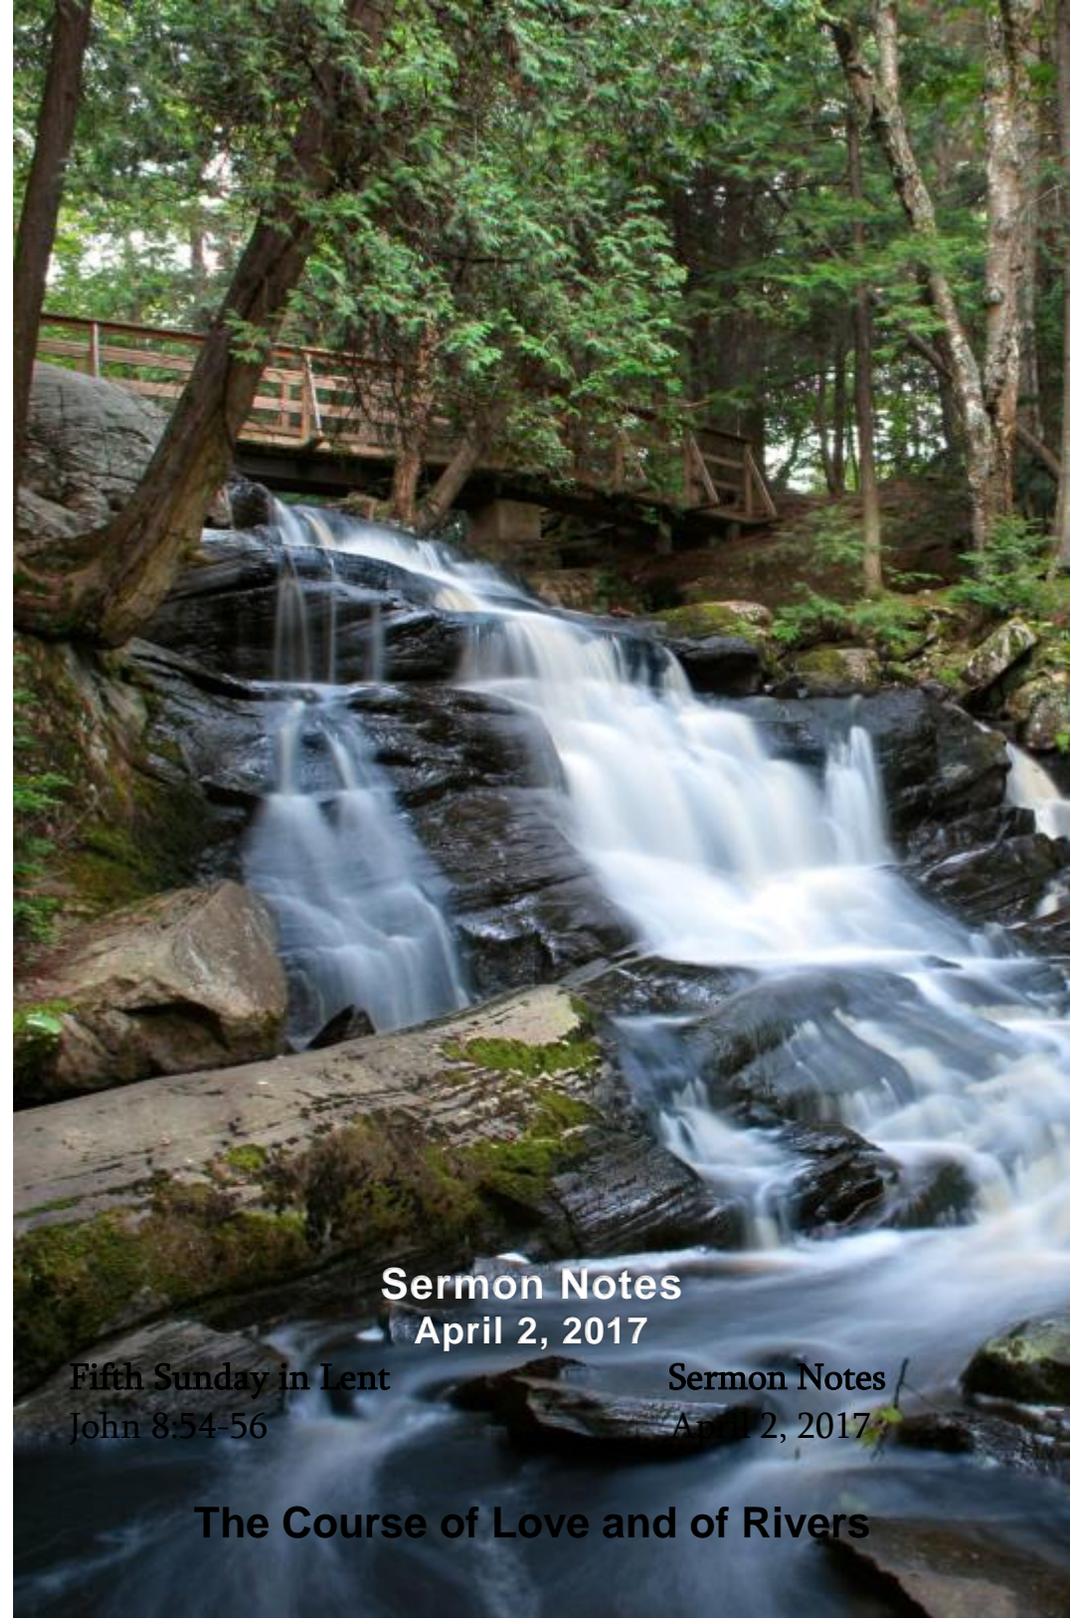

Reflect on this section when you get home. Try to journal your responses and pray over them throughout the week...

1. Read Mark 14:32-42 aloud to yourself. Remember what it's like to feel frantic; get the idea that every second of the day needs to be filled with something productive. Now imagine yourself putting all of those emotions and hyper-activities into a box and offering that box to God. This is the essence of prayer.
2. This is not a drill. Take out your actual calendar. Find twenty minutes where you can be completely undisturbed. Warning: You may need to erase something from your schedule in order to do this. It's worth it. Schedule twenty minutes to sit quietly in silent prayer.
3. During those twenty minutes, allow your soul to sit in silence, deliberately and intentionally waiting on the Lord. Imagine Him forming you as an individual consciousness; Imprinted with His image, filled with His breath, and alive in His love. When the twenty minutes has passed, journal your emotional response.

The Course of Love and of Rivers

Jesus replied, "If I glorify myself, my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me. Though you do not know him, I know him. If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced at the thought of seeing my day; he saw it and was glad.
