

Journaling:

Reflect on this section when you get home. Try to journal your responses and pray over them throughout the week...

1. What aspects of today's world scare me the most? Dig deep & ask yourself: "What am I really afraid of?"
2. Often we're more merciful toward others than we are toward ourselves. Write a note of encouragement to yourself as though you were talking to someone else; someone you love who needs a little inspiration...
3. Read 1 Thessalonians 5:10 out loud a few times, breathing between readings to allow the message to sink in. Make a list of five people in your life who witness grace to you by word or action. Then make a list of five people you can witness grace to this week either by what you say or what you do...
4. In what ways do I (or could I) risk my reputation to be in the world as salt and light? What would I do if I didn't care what people thought of me?

The Observer Effect

[Jesus said,] "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight.

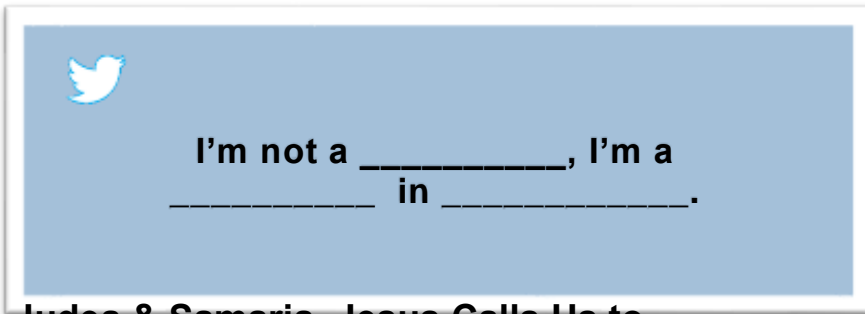

~ Acts 1:8-9
